Pet Adoption questionnaire: The purpose of these questions is to help us understand where your pet will be housed and cared for. We try our best to work for a successful adoption experience for the pet and the new family. A successfully filled adoption packet does not ensure adoption. Adoptions may be rejected at Director's discretion. Some animals have home requirements that require further evaluations.

ATTENTION: ANIMAL ADOPTER

Please be advised that Cheatham County Animal Control does not employ a staff veterinarian. Therefore, we cannot guarantee the health of the animals we adopt out. We do not administer wormer, booster shots, or rabies vaccinations after an animal has left our facility. To insure good health, any animal adopted from a Shelter, Rescue, or Animal Control facility should be seen by a veterinarian immediately upon release.

If you adopt an animal and it does not work out for any reason, we will take the animal back. However, we cannot issue refunds/compensations.

Please indicate that you have read and understand this policy by signing and dating this form.

Thank you for visiting our Animal Control Facility.
